Three southern Wisconsin community leaders have joined the corporate board of the Community Foundation of Southern Wisconsin:

Dr. Sharon Kennedy is the Vice President of Learning at Blackhawk Technical College. A Michigan native, she practiced law before entering academia. She is currently writing a book about the experiences and retraining of dislocated workers. Dr. Kennedy serves on the Community Impact Council of United Way of North Rock County and the Education Council of Forward Janesville. She is a member of Janesville Noon Rotary and Zonta.

Roberta (Bobbie) Bernet recently retired from the U.S. Postal Service as the postmaster of Monroe and Juda. In 1996, Bernet chaired the first advisory board of the Monroe Fund. A Monroe native, she holds a degree in history from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and served in the Peace Corps in the early 1970s. Bernet is currently active with the Green County Literacy Council, the Kiwanis Club of Monroe, the Monroe Arts Center, the Green County Family YMCA, the Monroe Swiss Singers and the Bel Canto Singers.

William (Bill) McDaniel, an attorney with Johnson, Kranz & McDaniel, is a lifelong resident of Darlington. He holds a bachelor's degree in business administration from the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and a law degree from Marquette University. McDaniel is a former member of the Darlington school board and a former board president. He currently serves on the boards of First National Bank in Darlington and on the Darlington Community Fund.
